EXPERIENCE

The University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA
Media Producer, University Center for Teaching and Learning
JANUARY 2015 - PRESENT

I work with a team of media producers to provide audio-visual support for live university events and produce professional video production and motion graphic animations within the University Teaching Center's Academic Digital Media unit.

Example projects and activities include leading the production of a video series highlighting university teaching and learning resources, supporting audio visual needs for high-profile live events and studio productions, and animating university branded assets and various promotional video content.

Freelance Digital Media Producer

OCTOBER 2011 - PRESENT

I regularly work with multiple clients to complete motion graphic animations for documentaries and award ceremonies, visual effects, graphic design, video editing, and photography projects. I also organize and self-manage all contracts, deadlines, invoices, and files pertaining to each client and project.

Zenith Infotech LTD, Cranberry, PA

Video Production Specialist

APRIL 2012 - OCTOBER 2013

My responsibilities included setup and direction of live webinars, production of testimonials, interviews, and creative PowerPoint design.

I worked with a studio team to complete video editing, motion graphics, color grading and correction, and visual effects for various projects, start to finish.
